

January 2020
Quiz Answers

1. What is cud?

Cud is the partially digested and regurgitated food that cows chew.

2. Where and when was the first shipment of milk by railroad?

In 1841 between Orange County, NY, and New York City.

3. You have to eat _____ oranges to get the same amount of calcium as an 8-ounce glass of milk?

Seven

4. Americans eat about _____ pieces of pizza per SECOND.

350. That's a lot of cheese!

5. T or F. In Pennsylvania, milk is regulated by both the federal and state governments.

True.

6. Do cows sweat?

No

7. T or F. A cow fed only grass produces about twice the amount of milk as one that is fed grass, corn and other nutrients?

False. It is the other way around. A cow fed only grass produces about half the amount of milk as one that is fed grass, corn and other nutrients.

8. T or F. Home delivery of milk started in 1942 as a war conservation measure.

True

9. T or F. A Holstein's spots are like fingerprints – no two have the same pattern.

True

10. What dairy product do people crave the most?

Cheese